Official Program and Show Guide

Established: 1988

The World Pork Expo Official Souvenir Program and Show Guide

is produced for America's pork producers by the National Pork Producers Council, and distributed free of charge to attendees at World Pork Expo, the premiere agricultural event for pork producers. More than 10,000 producers and others are expected to attend from the United States and North America. Contents of the program include the official listing of more than 400 exhibiting companies and their locations, as well as the most complete event schedule available to attendees.
